

MRS. THAW WEEPS IN THE TOMBS HIGHWAYMEN FAIL TO GET MONEY

"MY BOY! MY BOY!" CRIES MOTHER

Attorney Declares That Insanity
Will Not Be Young Thaw's Defense.

NEW YORK, July 16.—
MRS. WILLIAM THAW OF
PITTSBURG PAID A VISIT TO HER SON, HARRY K.
THAW, IN THE TOMBS PRISON TODAY, WHERE HE IS A PRISONER, ACCUSED OF THE MURDER OF STAN-FORD WHITE. MRS. THAW,
WHO ARRIVED FROM EU-ROPE SATURDAY, AND WAS UNABLE TO VISIT HER SON
ON SUNDAY, WENT TO THE PRISON ACCOMPANIED BY JOSIAH C. THAW AND A. R.
PEABODY OF THAW'S
COUNSEL. MRS. THAW'S
ARRIVAL AT THE TOMBS WAS PRECEDED BY THAT OF HARRY THAW'S WIFE,
EVELYN, BUT THE LATTER,
UPON ASCERTAINING THAT
MRS. WILLIAM THAW HAD NOT YET VISITED THE TOMBS, DECLARED THAT SHE DESIRED HER HUS-BAND'S MOTHER TO HAVE
THE FIRST OPPORTUNITY
OF SEEING THE PRISONER.
THE YOUNGER MRS. THAW
THEN RETIRED TO THE CONSULTING ROOM TO AWAIT MRS. THAW'S AR-RIVAL.

MEETS COUNSEL.
Before Mrs. William Thaw reached the prison, her son's new counsel, Clifford W. Harridge, called on Francis J. Lantry, the commissioner of corrections, and endeavored to make arrangements so that Mrs. Thaw could meet her son in the consulting room at the Tombs. Instead of talking with him through the bars of the cell, but Mr. Lantry instructed the warden that he could make no exception to the prison rules in Mrs. Thaw's case.

AT THE PRISON.
The mother reached the prison shortly before noon. In the meantime a large crowd had gathered about the entrance to the prison. When her cab stopped at the door, the bystanders pressed forward so closely that the police found difficulty in making a line through them to permit Mrs.
Thaw to pass into the prison.
Mrs. Thaw was met at the door by the prison warden who told her in an apologetic way that it would be necessary for her to comply with the prison rule that all visitors must be searched.

Mrs. Thaw then retired to the room of the Tombs matron, where the rule was complied with. The warden, Josiah C.
Thaw, and Mr. Peabody escorted her to the corridor in which Harry Thaw's cell is located, and then withdrew after she had thanked them. Mrs. Thaw then made her way along to cell No.
220 and greeted her son for the first time since he shot Stanford White.

IN THE CELL.
As Mrs. Thaw reached the cell of her son it was seen that her daughter-in-law had left the consulting room and gone to the cell of her husband.
When the young wife saw the mother approaching she slowly backed away from the cell to a spot some fifteen feet down the corridor. There was no sign of recognition between the two. On the mother's arrival at the cell keeper John Smith saw that she was somewhat feeble and opened the door of Thaw's cell to get the stool on which she might sit during the interview with her son. The mother, not knowing the rules of the prison, upon seeing the door opened, rushed forward to her son.

"MY BOY! MY BOY!"
In an instant both her arms were clasped around the neck of her son, while he with bent head clasped his mother to his breast. Tears streamed from the eyes of both mother and son.
Then ensued a few minutes' silence, broken only by the mother's cry of
"My boy! my boy."

Keeper Smith stood with his back turned for a short time and then informed Mrs. Thaw that the prison rules allowed visitors to talk to prisoners only with bars separating them.
The mother stepped out of the cell, while Smith shut the door and turned the key once more on Thaw.

KISSED THROUGH BARS.
A small stool was then placed in front of the cell and Mrs. Thaw took her seat on it and continued talking to her son for about half an hour. She then kissed her son through the iron bars and was taken down stairs, where she was joined by Josiah Thaw, who had been waiting for her in the consulting room.

The largest crowd since Thaw was first taken to the Tombs had assembled in the street outside and the police made a narrow passageway through it for Mrs. Thaw to reach her carriage.
Her driver was compelled to force a way through the crowd.

JACK HASTINGS—BERNICE MELVIN.
Hastings eloped with the Melvin woman and took her to Denver. She learned he was a burglar and left him, returning to this city.

ELK TRAIN WRECKED

Locomotive Falls on to Engineer, Crushing Him
to a Pulp.

TRINIDAD, Colo., July 16.—Passenger train No. 7 on the Colorado and Southern Railway, carrying hundreds of today's Elks to the convention in Denver, was wrecked three miles north of Forbes Junction at an early hour
this morning.

Engineer Martin J. Cullen was killed and fireman Charles T. Garroll badly hurt. That the whole train was not carried into the deep arroyo, resulting in serious loss of life, is probably due to the fact that it was running slowly on account of the recent heavy rains.

The train ran into a landslide while rounding a curve and the engine rolled over, carrying the two baggage cars with it. None of the passenger coaches left the track.

Cullen was caught under the locomotive and his body crushed to a pulp.
Fireman Garroll jumped, thus escaping death. Though severely injured he walked three miles to Forbes and notified the officials here.

Two special trains from the south carrying Elks to the Denver convention are held up here on account of the wreck and will be delayed for some time until the track can be cleared.

NOTORIOUS HASTINGS IN A CLOSE CORNER

He Eloped With Bernice Melvin and Took Her to Denver.

John Hastings, who with Duffield
Knox Duncan was arrested in Denver, Colorado, after making a desperate attempt to rob the private bank of Edward W. Elwell in the Ernest & Cranmer building, was during almost the entire time that he was employed as a newspaper man in this city under the surveillance of the local police, who several times after learning his record believed that he was implicated in crimes, the perpetrators of which were never captured. Hastings, on being released from San Quentin prison, where he served a term of two years for forgery committed in Los Angeles, secured employment on the staff of a San Francisco daily paper.

HE WAS DISCHARGED.
He was afterward sent to the Oakland office of the same paper, subsequently being discharged when his record became known. He then became a member of the staff of a local evening paper, and it was while he was employed in this capacity that the police were given reason to think that he had again entered upon a career of crime.
If such was the case, however, Hastings escaped punishment for his misdeeds, as the police were never able to connect him with any criminal action. Hastings, early in his career in this city, became notorious as the associate of lewd women, and of others who were special objects of observation by the local detectives. He was several times warned by the authorities, to whom his criminal record was known, that he would either have to give up his mode of life or leave town.

MADE BOASTS.
Hastings was often heard to declare that as long as he was a newspaper man, the police were powerless to interfere with him, and it was his constant boast that they feared to bother him. His reasoning, however, proved false, for after enduring his actions for some time, the police gave him to understand that he had better leave Oakland at once, or he would get into trouble. He took the hint.

WENT WITH WOMAN.
Hastings went direct from this city to Denver, and when he left Oakland he was accompanied by Bernice Melvin, who had been his constant companion during his stay in this city.
When they got to Denver, the Melvin woman found out that Hastings was a burglar, and she left him and returned to Oakland.
The criminal record of the former Oakland newspaper man is a long one,
and he has come under the eye of the police under a number of aliases. On the police records of Los Angeles he is known as Hastings, J. P. Kuhne, J. Paul Kuehn, and Jack Wallace. The latter was believed to be his true name, but later the police of the southern city received information which leads to the belief that the true name of the young man is Cooney.

He was known as a notorious character in Oakland and left a bad record behind him. When he was put to the test in the Denver robbery he quit like a yellow dog and ran away.

KILLED IN EXPLOSION

ASHLAND, Wis., July 16.—A powder mill several miles from this city blew up today, killing three men.
Twenty were injured. The dead:
J. P. PIERCE, superintendent of the mill.
WILLIAM WALLACE, laborer.
GEORGE WOODSIL.
The neutralizing plant was totally destroyed.
The mill was owned by the Atlantic Dynamite Company and there are twenty-five buildings in the group.
The shock was terrific and broke many windows in Ashland.

SLASHES THROAT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—Felix
Beson, a barkeeper, residing at 1263
Laguna street, attempted to commit suicide last night by slashing his throat and wrists with a pocket knife.
He was discovered by his room mate, Charles Wenke, who had him taken to the receiving hospital for treatment.

SECURE GOLD.

LONDON, July 16.—After strong competition the United States secured in the open market today about $2,500,000 of this week's gold arrivals, the price, 77s 10 1/2-54 being a penny advance.

READY TO TALK OF PEACE

Roosevelt Arranges Confab Between Salvador and Guatemala.

OYSTER BAY, July 16.—Peace negotiations between Guatemala and Salvador are being arranged today by President Roosevelt and Acting Secretary of State Bacon at Sagamore Hill. The question to be settled is whether Honduras will become a party to the negotiations at this time. It is reasoned here that it would hardly be fair to compel Guatemala to face two former foes in a peace conference at one time. Honduras will probably agree to the settlement arranged for the two states primarily involved. The negotiations, it is stated, will doubtless be held on board the American cruiser Marblehead, now in Guatemalan waters. The arbitrators on behalf of the United States and Mexico will be the Mexican minister to Central American, Messrs. Combes and Werry. United States ministers to Guatemala and Salvador respectively.
The data of the detail of the proceedings beyond this have not been arranged.

HONDURAS' DECLARATION.
NEW YORK, July 16.—The Associated Press has received the following telegram from the president of the Republic of Honduras:
"Tegucigalpa, Honduras, July 16.—
Honduras has not declared war.
Guatemala, without justification or reason, has invaded the territory of this republic, and the whole country has come to the national defense."
"(Signed) MANUEL BONILLA."

STRANGLES HIMSELF

San Francisco Grocer Ends
Life Because of Despondency.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—Alois
Volk, a grocer of this city, was found dead in the rear of his store this morning, with a piece of gas tubing wound around his throat. Death was due to strangulation.
Volk had sold his place a few days ago to Marcus Ruter of 2703 Folsom street. He is said to have been despondent. It is thought he regretted the sale of the place and decided to take his life.

He wrapped the tubing around his throat, attached it to the bar and let his weight fall on the tubing.
He was discovered by the man to whom he sold the place.

JOHN D. DONATES

NEW YORK, July 16.—H. J. McCoy, secretary of the San Francisco Y. M.
C. A., announced in this city today that he had received an offer by John D.
Rockefeller last night to give $250,000
towards rebuilding the San Francisco Y. M. C. A. buildings, provided an equal amount was secured from others.
Mr. McCoy said he has already secured $150,000 in addition to the Rockefeller offer.

TRIED TO HOLD UP A CAR

Passengers Made Their Escape and Gave the Alarm.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—Frightened passengers jumping off a car on Railroad avenue, between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth streets last night frustrated the plans of two masked highwaymen, who attempted to hold up the conductor, motorman and late travelers.

THEY WERE MASKED.
The robbers, armed with pistols, and heavily masked with black pieces of cloth, which fell below their shoulders, jumped on either end of the car and shouted "hands up" to the belated passengers and the carmen. Panic ensued among the score of passengers.
Those on the outside seats jumped and ran. This move on the part of the passengers confused and disconcerted the highwaymen. They made a desperate effort to hold the fleeing passengers in check, but as one by one the intimidated victims took flight the nerve of the robbers failed and they also took to their heels.

SAW TWO MEN.
The motorman, George James, states that he saw the two men signal for the car to stop. He applied the brakes and brought the car to a standstill.
One man got on the front platform.
"Throw up your hands," said the robbed thug to the motorman. James complied with the command. The fellow who jumped on the rear of the car issued the same order to Conductor James Leary. While the two men in charge of the car were at a disad-vantage, the exodus of passengers began. The escape of the prospective victims brought fright into the hearts of the bold highwaymen. "Drive like hell," ahead," shouted the footpad covering the motorman. Before the command could be complied with the robber on the rear platform had darted into the darkness and his comrade followed suit. The men are described as medium in build and wearing dark clothes. The marks completely concealed their features.

ROBBED OF $185 WHILE AT BALL

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—Giuseppe Andriano, residing at 500 Stanyan street, while attending a masquerade ball at the Ocean Beach Pavilion on Saturday night, was relieved of a purse containing $185.

POLICE MUST MOVE.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—The police and the police judges will have to vacate Lowell High school in two days, as the schools reopen next Monday.

Judge Moran will take up quarters
at the Stanyan street police station.
Judge Tabares will go to the O'Farrell street station. Judge Shortall has not yet located. Judge Conlan will go on a vacation. The police headquarters will remove to Bush and Van Ness avenue.

ONLY VICTIM MAN WHO FLED EARTHQUAKE

HELENA, Mont., July 16.—A special to the Independence from Butte, states that the east wall of the Butte hotel, totalling over 7 o'clock this morning, totalling over $50,000, collapsed, causing the loss of $50,000. The wall was poorly constructed.
Many people would have been killed but for the fact that the clerk at the Southern noticed the break in the walls and warned all the guests, who had hardly left the hotel before the crash came.
The only man who was buried in the ruins was Charles Douglas, who had come from San Francisco to get out of the earthquake zone.

COMPACT OF DEATH

Husband and Wife Found
With Throats Cut--
Leave Note.

CHICAGO, July 16.—Edward F.
Kloss and his wife, who conducted a small millinery store, were found dead today in the rooms above the store.
The throats of Kloss and his wife had been cut, they both had been shot through the head, and blood was spattered on the floor and on the furniture.
A revolver was beside the body of Kloss, and the police at first believed he committed the crime.
Later the police found a letter written by Kloss in which he said that he

nes With Crack Artillery Regiment.

PARIS, July 16.—War Minister Etienne today announced the assignment of Major Dreyfus to the Twelfth regiment of artillery, stationed at Vincennes. This is a crack regiment, which has participated in state functions at the capital.

WERE CARVED WITH RAZOR

Two Teamsters, Badly Cut Up, Say Unknown Person Attacked Them.

James Kennedy, a teamster of 1470
Third street, and C. W. Phillips, another teamster of 1266 Tenth street, were treated at the Receiving Hospital last night by Drs. Reine and Irwin for numerous deep lacerations of the face and arms made with a razor. The injured men stated that they were attacked and cut up by an unknown person, but the authorities are of the opinion that the two teamsters had a misunderstanding and did their own carving.
Both wounded parties appeared at the same time at the hospital for treatment.
Kennedy had deep wounds on the left cheek and left arm and Phillips had a cut four inches long behind the right ear, one two inches long on the forehead and one four inches long on the right arm. After treatment they left for their homes.

RAIN ON THE ELKS

Considerable Damage Is Done to the Decorations.

DENVER, July 16.—Considerable havoc was wrought by rain Saturday night and Sunday to the elaborate street decorations provided in honor of the Elks' reunion, which opens here today, but the weather cleared this morning and the damage was repaired during the day. Royal purple and white are the prevailing colors, but hundreds of flags are intermingled in the decorations. On monoliths and pedestals, at street corners, have been placed large Elks surrounded by electric lights. All business houses and many homes are likewise elaborately decorated. Thousands of people were deposited at the Union depot today, thirty special trains being scheduled to arrive during the day. The grand lodge B. P. O. E. will open its forty-second annual session this evening.

SECRETLY WED SIX MONTHS

Announcement of Marriage Made at Reception to Another Couple.

The romantic midnight wedding of Peter O'Neill and Kate Appender some days ago had a pleasant sequel at the reception given in honor of the happy couple at the Appender residence, at Eighth and Fulton streets, by Miss Emma Appender.

While congratulations were being offered the bride and groom, Miss Appender, a young and charming lady, who knew in social circles both in the city and the state of the day, suddenly declared the company of the announcement that she was no longer a stranger, but was the happy wife of William O'Neill, a gentleman well known in Oakland business and social circles.

Not only was this the case, but they had been secretly married six months ago. The announcement was made by Miss Emma Appender last January, and the lady, continuing, the couple had eloped quietly to San Rafael, where they were secretly married by Rev. Mr. M. J. O'Neill, Arthur Windom acting as witness to the ceremony.

The announcement was first publicly made Friday night and the happy couple were the recipients of many congratulations and good wishes. Mr. O'Neill has been living in the employ of Hook & Co., the furniture dealers, as bookkeeper, and is a popular young man, while Mrs. O'Neill has been a belle in social circles.

STUDENTS ACCUSED OF OPENING GRAVES

UKIAH, July 16.—The University of California and some of its professors and students may find themselves in difficulty in a short time, if certain investigations being made in this vicinity substantiate stories told. Several weeks ago there was trouble among the Indians on the rancheria below this city because of the presence of three or four men who camped there for about four weeks. After they had left it was found that several graves in the old Indian burial ground had been opened and the remains and Indian trinkets removed.

Besides containing the remains of aborigines, there were many articles of anthropological value in the tombs, and these were removed with the remains and taken to the University of California. There it was proposed to place them in the museum for study.

Among the bodies exhumed were those of the mother and sister of Dick Rucklick, and he feels it his duty to invoke the aid of the white man's law in securing possession of the remains of his relatives. Papers are to be prepared and a legal battle begun to recover the remains.

NEW MANUFACTORY TO GO UP IN BERKELEY

BERKELEY, July 16.—The latest announcement of a proposed addition to the list of manufactories that are starting in Berkeley is in reference to a lumber and planing mill soon to be erected on University avenue, near Sacramento street, by the Mercer-Hogson Improvement Company.

This firm owns thousands of acres in Humboldt county. It is in order to be nearer the market that the company has decided to locate in Berkeley. It has taken a ten-year lease on the tract property, which adjoins the old Town Hall site on University avenue.

BERKELEY COTILLION.

BEGIN GREAT LAND LOTTERY

Government Opens Registration for Drawing at Opening of Idaho Reservation.

SHOSHONE, Wyo., July 16.—Today the registration for lands in the Shoshone or Wind river Indian reservation began at this place and also at Lander, Thermopolis and Worland. Large crowds are arriving, and officials of the general land office estimate that fully 40,000 people will register for homes. The registration began at 9 o'clock today and will close at 6 p. m. on July 31. The drawing will begin on August 4 and will continue until August 15, when the reservation will be formally opened.

LARGE TRACT.

There are about one million acres in the tract to be opened and according to surveys made by the state under permit from the department of the interior, from 265,000 to 300,000 acres will be capable of reclamation by irrigation.

The plan adopted by the state promises to make the opening of the Shoshone reservation the most successful of recent western Indian land openings. The state engineer has prepared a complete series of maps and specifications for a comprehensive irrigation system and the water rights to the entire tract, which are vested in the state, will be conferred upon the company which will contract to furnish water to the settlers at the lowest cost per acre, the entire system to eventually become the property of the settlers. It is estimated that water in this manner can be put upon over 200,000 acres of land at a smaller cost to the settler than if he built his own dam and ditches.

The bids will be open on August 1, and it is expected that the company getting the contract will immediately start operation on a sufficiently large scale to enable many of the settlers to move on their lands and obtain employment this winter. There are about 4000 good agricultural claims on the reservation and government reports show valuable minerals in the Owl Creek mountains.

DIE IF DIRTY IS BANISHED

Enforced Cleanliness Is Fatal to Negro Canal Laborers.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Perfect sanitation and clean linens are proving fatal to the West Indian negroes employed on the Panama canal. Although Colonel Goras and his assistants have banished yellow fever and other tropical fevers which made the canal zone one large burying ground for the French canal builders, they have found that sanitary precautions taken in the quarters occupied by workmen make the Jamaican negroes especially susceptible to pneumonia and other throat and lung troubles.

West Indians are not accustomed to an abundance of fresh air and well-ventilated, cleanly quarters. Living for generations in small huts, where large families crowd into rooms tightly closed against the night air, the negroes from Jamaica and other tropical islands have developed lungs with cramped capacity and especially susceptible to changes of temperature.

EAT BAD FOOD.

The officers in charge have found that the West Indian laborers cannot be induced to eat sufficient wholesome food to keep them in good health, even when supplies are furnished to them at cost price, and meals are made attractive at great expense to the canal commission.

Chief Engineer Stevens of the canal commission, Governor Magoon and other men identified with the work on the isthmus have agreed that lack of lung capacity and insufficient nourishment, rather than laziness, are responsible for the inability of the West Indians to perform an amount of work equal to that done by white laborers from Spain. The negroes are paid only eighty cents a day, while the white men from Spain and Cuba are paid twice that amount, and many of the bosses from the canal work are of the opinion that the white men really do much more than twice as much as the colored laborers.

SPANIARDS CLEANLY.

The Spaniards have been found to be thrifty and cleanly in their habits. They take their families to the isthmus and maintain homes in which wholesome conditions prevail and good food is served. Most of the Spaniards are employed on the isthmus west of there from Cuba, but they are natives of Spain who had obtained employment in Cuba. It is expected that Spain will grant the commission permission to take large numbers of Spaniards laborers to the isthmus.

To abandon negro labor, according to the commission, would be practically impossible. But Chairman Shonts and other members of the commission feel that it is unsafe to depend on any one class of labor, and because of the unsatisfactory results with negro labor they are not only turning to Spaniards but will probably try Chinese labor later, as it is not believed that sufficient Spaniards can be had to meet the demands when the canal work becomes more advanced.

KLEIN BROS. TENDER BANQUET TO EMPLOYEES

At a local restaurant on last Saturday evening, a banquet was tendered by the Klein Brothers, of the Vogue Tailoring Company, to the many persons this popular firm employs. Henry Hahn acted as toastmaster, and Sig and Milton Klein made appropriate remarks for the occasion.

The menu was one that was done justice to by all present, and to the strains of a superb orchestra the event was made a most happy one. It is the custom of the Klein Brothers to bring together their employees on such an occasion every year, making the relation between employer and employee of a most pleasant nature.

WHEN

It comes to invention a Yankee has a Frenchman backed off the map, but the French are a frugal people in spite of their alleged "froth." Who else could have invented the phrase, "Enough is a feast?" How very expressive, how witty, and, above all, how frugal! A French family subsists on what an American family wastes. And they know how to get the most palatable things to eat and how to cook and serve them. When you think of good things to eat, think of Lehnhardt. Lehn is half French and the rest Yankee.

OAKLANDER IN TRAGIC SCENE

SANTA CRUZ, July 16.—Death intervened with the singing of a hymn at the Advent Christian camp meeting at Camp Cooper Saturday morning. Edward L. Taylor of Oakland, one of the best-known preachers of the State, fell in an epileptic fit and broke up the meeting. He died in forty minutes. His death threw the meeting into a state of confusion. The dead man's wife is in Lake county and has been communicated with. They have a son in Fresno.

Mr. Taylor was secretary of the Advent Christian Publishing Society, and was an insurance broker in Oakland. He was a native of Massachusetts and was fifty-five years of age.

ELOPER APPEARS

Gives Himself Up to Police But is Subsequently Released.

Harry K. Davis of this city, who eloped last March with Miss Lulu Hennig, despite the fact that he was already married, walked into the police station this morning and gave himself up. He was subsequently released, as he has secured a divorce from his wife and married Miss Hennig.

Last March Albert Hennig, father of the young woman, applied to the police for aid in locating his daughter, who, it was subsequently discovered, had eloped with Davis. Later it was discovered that Davis was already married, and that divorce proceedings instituted by him were pending in Seattle.

When Miss Hennig's parents were informed of the facts learned by the police they swore to a complaint charging Davis with a felony, but the latter fled from the city, and was never captured. Miss Hennig was found by the police, and was returned to the care of her father.

This morning young Davis, accompanied by Hennig, walked into the police station and gave himself up. The father of the girl explained to Captain of Police Petersen, however, that Davis had secured a divorce from his first wife, and that he had been married to Miss Hennig a month ago in San Jose. Davis was booked on a felony charge, but when the circumstances of the case were explained to Police Judge Samuelis, the latter ordered Davis released on his own recognizance.

The young man was ordered to appear in the police court tomorrow morning, when a formal hearing of the case will be held, but as the father of the bride has declared that he will not prosecute the case, a dismissal must follow.

Davis and his wife are now living together in this city.

CHURCH WORKER PASSES AWAY

Miss Rosa M. Taylor, for over twelve years the secretary of the First Congregational church, died Saturday afternoon at Fabiola Hospital.

Miss Taylor began her work during the pastorate of Dr. J. K. McLean and has been associated with Rev. Charles R. Brown during his entire pastorate in the First Congregational Church in this city. She has been closely identified with all interests of the church. Her indefatigable labors have done much to build up this church in its various forms of usefulness.

The funeral will be held Tuesday, July 17, at 2 o'clock, in the auditorium of the church. Rev. Mr. Brown, who is absent in the Sierra, will officiate tomorrow morning and will officiate.

NEW YORK, July 16.—Adam Scheuing, a butcher, today shot and fatally wounded Miss Louise Karcher, daughter of his employer, shot and seriously wounded the girl's mother and committed suicide by cutting his throat. The supposed motive was the rejection of Scheuing's attention to Miss Karcher.

AN EXCEPTIONAL NUMBER.

Remarkable for its clearcut editorials on all the questions of the day and for the pungent short paragraphs, the News Letter stands today a remarkable publication and the issue of the current week (obtainable at all news stands) is no exception to the rule. It is full of acumen and dry wit; its political articles are timely and exclusive; its automobile department is full of the latest gossip in the circles of the followers of the devil wagon. The Town Crier is as sharp tongued as usual and he handles the labor situation with stinging lash, exposing the frauds in the field of labor. While the News Letter is excellent throughout, it is in the matter of exclusive insurance news that it shines particularly this week. The insured cannot afford to be without it as it points the way to early settlement of insurance difficulties.

SCORES COUNSEL

Court Says Attorneys in Hartje Case Have Acted Disgracefully.

PITTSBURG, July 16.—The taking of testimony in the Hartje divorce case, which was to have been resumed today, was again postponed until tomorrow, counsel for Mrs. Hartje having requested a continuance for another day to allow the experts for the defense had been unable to obtain possession of the letters for examination.

When the court opened Attorney John M. Freeman, counsel for Mrs. Hartje, informed Judge Frazer that the defense had been unable to obtain possession of the letters for examination. These letters, he said, were in the hands of counsel for the plaintiff, but had refused to turn them over.

Without the letters, he said, the defense could not proceed and he therefore asked for an adjournment.

Judge Frazer said the request was reasonable and granted the continuance, after ordering the plaintiff's counsel to relinquish the exhibits to the defense.

SEVERE LECTURE.

The judge then delivered a severe lecture to the counsel. "This case," he said, "is not being tried openly and honestly. It is a disgrace the way counsel have acted, and I have been thinking about keeping everybody out of the courtroom. I read in the papers Saturday that counsel would give up the letters when they got good and ready. Every day a new sensation is promised. There has been entirely too much said in the newspapers about this case. Counsel had better be a little more careful in the future. One side is as bad as the other."

Attorney Ferguson, of the plaintiff's counsel, here called the attention of the court to a statement made several days ago that he would not take any notice of what he saw in the newspapers. Judge Frazer agreed with this and added:

"One day I read in the newspapers certain statements, and then the next day witnesses are put on the stand to substantiate. If you read the newspapers you can find what will be testified beforehand."

It was reported this afternoon that the arrest of a young woman was expected soon on the charge of writing the Madeline letters which counsel for the libelant is trying to prove were written by Mrs. Hartje. The same person, it is alleged, will also be charged with writing the letter threatening the life of Mrs. Mary Slocum, the friend of Mrs. Hartje, who has been the latter's daily companion since the opening of the divorce case.

Robbed of his wife and money by a fellow countryman, Chin Gin, a Chinese resident of this city, whose home is at 10 Zing alley, instead of waking the usual vengeance of the Oriental upon the man who broke up his home, this morning applied to the police for aid in locating the runaway couple. Gin alleges that Jim Lee yesterday eloped with his wife, the wife of Chin Gin, and that the eloping pair took with them $14,000, money which had been saved by the deserted husband.

Gin, after telling his story to the police, swore to a complaint charging Jim Lee and his father with the eloping and the money. He informed the police that the pair had been seen to board a Santa Fe train, and as soon as the warrants for their arrest were issued dispatches were sent out notifying all officers along the lines of the Santa Fe to intercept and arrest the couple.

DEPOT BUILDING TO BE IMPROVED

The main terminal railway station of the Southern Pacific Company at Franklin street, near Fourteenth, is to be remodeled and brought up to date. This work is to be consummated by reason of a report made by P. R. Porter to General Manager E. E. Calvin of that corporation. Vice-President Calvin has recently written to him, as follows:

"Your letter June 25. We will build addition to the building at Fourteenth and Franklin to provide facilities for the character mentioned."

The improvements in question are to be a transfer of the news, stationery and cigar business to an annex building; the baggage room is to be shifted to that space and conveniences for the traveling public are to be bettered.

JAPANESE WOUNDED

Cook Shot in Leg While Trying to Get into Oakland Home.

Magno Schiro, a Japanese cook who says he is employed at 2129 Hearst avenue, Berkeley, was taken for a burglar at an early hour this morning and was shot in the right leg above the knee by E. Maude at 835 Harrison street. Schiro was taken to the receiving hospital, where the wound was treated by Dr. H. Kolford.

According to the statement made by Schiro, he, in company with one of his countrymen, was in Oakland last night and found a quantity of Japanese liquor to their liking. Before they started on their way home they were light-headed and heavy in the legs. They started for Hearst avenue, but by mistake got in the rear of the premises on Hanson street and while tumbling around in an attempt to get in the back door they awakened Maude, who lives in the house. He supposed that burglars were at work and opened fire with a revolver.

Schiro fell to the ground with the bullet in his leg, and his friend, after screaming at the top of his voice, ran hurriedly from the scene. It is presumed that he is carrying a bullet around with him, but a search for him has been unavailing.

The police are working on the case and take a different view of the matter than does Schiro. It is stated that the officers will work along the lines that the Japanese were at Maude's residence for no good purpose. Schiro's friend will be arrested if found and the wounded man will later be questioned closely as to his side of the affair.

ROWE RETURNS

Went on a Visit to the Old Home in Illinois.

Superior H. D. Rowe has come back from an extended trip in the east, and is receiving the congratulations of friends over his safe return and the pleasure he experienced while traveling far from home and meeting old friends where he had left them many years ago.

Speaking about his trip, Supervisor Rowe said to a TRIBUNE reporter: "I simply took a trip back mainly to visit my old home in Elgin, Illinois. I also paid a visit to Iowa City, the former home of my wife. In both places I met people whom I was pleased to see, and who expressed their gratification at my return. At Iowa City I attended the commencement exercises of Iowa university, from which I graduated, and I also attended the commencement exercises of the Elgin Academy, which I attended many years ago. I was accompanied on my journey by my wife. The weather was generally pleasant, and this, of course, increased the pleasure of the outing. But I am glad to be back in California. We were absent eight weeks."

Supervisor Rowe attended a meeting of the supervisors this morning, and took the same amount of interest in the proceedings of that body, as has always done since he became connected with it.

Removal of Debris From San Francisco Sidewalks.

At a recent meeting of the San Francisco Board of Public Works a resolution was adopted instructing the Secretary to notify property owners in the burned district to remove the debris from their respective sidewalks within forty-eight hours. Such a resolution was never framed or adopted in a spirit of sincerity, for the one reason, without citing any other, that the task which it orders performed is impossible of accomplishment in the brief time allowed for the purpose. The threat of arrest for maintaining a public nuisance, which accompanies the order in the event of a failure to obey it, is not likely to disturb the owner of any property on whom service of the notice is made, because the law does not contemplate impossible things and the courts take a reasonable view of conditions in such cases. Convictions cannot, therefore, be expected to be secured, if arrests are made. If the Board attempts to make a showing of sincerity, it will have to arrest every violator of the order. It will be impossible, of course, to arrest any of the delinquents save those who reside in the city, as non-residents will be outside the municipal jurisdiction. But the resident property-owners who will disobey the order will be numerous enough to keep all of the members of the police department and the petty criminal courts steadily employed for an indefinite period, if the Board of Works means business. Of course, the Board is not sincere in its purpose and the resolution is, at best, a farce. It was probably meant only as a bit of political by-play for the entertainment of the gallery and as a make-believe to the public that the Board is doing something. These are strenuous days for the appointive departments in San Francisco's municipal government, for Mayor Schmitz has begun to do a little house-cleaning, and the holders of many fat jobs are on tenter-hooks lest the operation may sweep them out of office.

The Board of Public Works is, however, asking the San Francisco property-owners to relieve the city's sidewalks of obstructions for whose existence it is in a measure co-responsible with the United Railways company, inasmuch as, in its eagerness to restore street communication through the burned district to the water front, the Board consented to the piling on the sidewalks of the debris removed from the roadway. The material which obstructed the latter should have been removed by the street railway company or by the Board of Public Works to some dumping ground where it would not have proved a public nuisance or a private burden. But when it was turned on to the sidewalk, as the quickest and easiest means of relieving the railway tracks and the pavement between the curbs, the process added to the financial distress of the property-owner who is legally responsible for the sidewalk. When it is remembered that it costs from $5 to $8 per carload to haul debris from the scene of loading to the dumps, every additional expense imposed upon property-owners for debris removal increases their burdens and makes the work of rehabilitation more difficult. And in the clearing of the street railway tracks and in opening other thoroughfares for wagon traffic thousands of tons of debris which the municipality and the street railways should have shipped to the dumps at their own expense, were simply transferred to the sidewalks, for the unfortunate property-owner to take care of at his own cost. While the debris which blocked the streets came largely from the ruined structures lining them, its distribution over the public thoroughfares has been of such a character as to introduce into the subject of responsibility for its removal a broad equity in favor of the property-owner. The courts are sure to recognize this whenever the issue is squarely made which the recent order of the Board of Public Works will be likely to precipitate.

Yesterday THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE contained forty-seven columns of classified advertisements, exclusive of legal and official advertising. Only two papers in California exceeded this volume of classified advertising—the San Francisco Examiner and the Los Angeles Times. No better proof can be given of THE TRIBUNE's popularity as an advertising medium. At the same time the volume of display advertising printed in these columns yesterday has never been approached by any other Oakland paper. This is because THE TRIBUNE is acknowledged to be the best evening paper in California.

YOU ARE RIGHT.

The President continues his pursuit of land thieves and corporations guilty of unlawful practices with unabated zeal. His success in bringing the offending combinations of capital to book proves that a vigorous and impartial enforcement of the present laws is more needed than new ones. The laws are all right if the will to enforce them be strong and resolute. The grafters do not care how many new laws are enacted if they are left unenforced.—Oakland Tribune.

That the present laws are sufficient to remedy and punish the evils arising from dishonest practices of trusts and corporations, and also by grafting officials, is proven by the number of convictions of both classes of offenders since President Roosevelt has been in office. People are apt to forget those things, but the names of the convicted would fill a column. But a few days ago six railroads and a refrigerator company were convicted in the U. S. Circuit Court in Wisconsin, and on Tuesday in the U. S. District Court at Chicago four of the largest packing houses in the country were convicted of illegal practices.—Lindsay Gazette.

San Francisco's New Police Board.

The personnel of the new police commission appointed by Mayor Schmitz will inspire public confidence. We have no acquaintance with William Haggerty, president of the San Francisco Labor Council, but his position as the head of the executive body of the federated labor organizations of the city indicates that he is a man of force, talent and executive ability. It also presumes him to be a man of intelligence and integrity. His three colleagues are fortunately well known and are men of unequivocal standing in the community. Herbert E. Law is one of the wealthiest and largest property owners in the city—a man who is not by any means a politician, and who has no sympathy with the pursuits which thrive on the seamy side of life. General R. H. Warfield is so well known in San Francisco that it is hardly necessary to state who and what he is. Nobody doubts that he possesses force, character, and organization talent. His military training will be of great service in reorganizing and disciplining the police force. The fourth member of the commission is W. H. Leahy, manager of the Tivoli opera house, also a man of character and talent. He also is an organizer with a rare knowledge of human nature, possessing an acquaintance with the gay and lighter side of life, with its shadows and seams, that should prove invaluable. On the whole, Mayor Schmitz can be said to have exceeded popular expectation in selecting the members of his new police commission.

Japan and the Open Door in Manchuria

According to the representations of the Japanese Embassy at Washington, the complaints which have been made of discrimination on the part of the Japanese military authorities in favor of Japanese subjects engaged in trade in Manchuria and against the commercial agents of other nationalities, are groundless. The Japanese statement of the conditions existing in Manchuria is at least plausible and it is made with so much frankness that it should be accepted without question as to the truth.

The complaints which have hitherto been lodged with the State Department were to the effect that the Japanese military authorities were so managing the civil and fiscal affairs of Manchuria as to make it impossible for foreign nations and, particularly, for the citizens of the United States to do any business in that section of the territory over which the Japanese retained temporary jurisdiction at the close of the war. In other words, that Japanese adhesion to the so-called "open door" policy proclaimed by Great Britain, Germany, France, Italy, and Japan was insincere, and fictitious. Among other things, it was asserted that the country had been flooded with irredeemable Japanese war notes which had been adopted as the circulation medium of the country to the exclusion of all other tokens of value. If that charge had been true, it would have meant, of course, that no other nationality save Japanese could have carried on trade in Manchuria, inasmuch as these war notes, which would have been tendered in payment for goods everywhere, could not have been converted into gold until they had been subjected to a discount heavy enough presumptively to eat up all the profits and possibly more. This charge is punctured by the showing that the war notes issued by Oyama during the Russo-Japanese campaign command a premium in exchange. Their acceptance, therefore, in barter would represent an actual increase instead of a reduction in the profit of the dealer, foreign or domestic, accepting them in payment for his wares. That complaint is, therefore, entirely without merit and must be disregarded as unworthy of serious consideration.

Next in order comes a complaint that Japan has been slow in opening the Manchurian ports to the world's trade. Particular stress was laid in this complaint on the condition of Dalny, the commercial port built up by the Russians on Talienwan bay when they were in possession of the Liaotung peninsula and the fortress of Port Arthur. It is shown that Dalny has been in constant use since the close of hostilities in the embarkation of troops to comply with the terms of evacuation agreed to in the treaty of Portsmouth and that, naturally, these military operations could not be hampered by commercial traffic without serious embarrassment to all concerned. The reasonableness of this representation is self-evident and must be accepted in good faith.

The Embassy emphasizes the assertion that Japan is committed unalterably to the principle of the "open door" and that it must and will rely upon other means of successfully competing for the Manchurian trade, which is admitted to be one of the richest opened in modern times. Japan relies upon natural advantages which it possesses, without creating artificial ones, for its success in trade in Manchuria. These include cheap labor at home, proximity to market, a thorough knowledge of the wants of the people of the territory and its interests and control of transportation facilities in Korea and Manchuria. These advantages have been acquired by it at the cost of war, involving an enormous outlay of money, which has created a big national debt, and the sacrifice of much of the best blood of the empire. They constitute, therefore, the legitimate fruits of a successful war and the natural favors of location. The Japanese depend upon them to secure a liberal share of Manchurian trade and to facilitate the payment by indirection of the national debt. They constitute a class of commercial assets which any nation possessing them would be sure to utilize to the best advantage, and all western nations, the United States included, will have to count on them in the competition for Manchurian trade. With such tremendous advantages on its side, Japan has no occasion to repudiate the "open door" policy or to resort to any questionable measures in order to defeat it; and, if American merchants desire to secure a share of the trade of the territory, they must enter the competition with a full knowledge of the natural and legitimate advantages which their Japanese rivals possess and carry on their business accordingly. It is folly to make false complaints and raise false issues.

In his Republican Times General Harrison Gray Otis urges the Republicans of the Seventh district to turn down Congressman James McLachlan and nominate W. B. Mathews. In his Democratic Herald the General advises Mr. Mathews to quit the race, as the machine is determined to give the nomination to McLachlan. It would appear that Mr. Mathews has another guess coming.

TO BLANK SPACE IN A MAGAZINE.

What's this! A half page without anything on it! Not even a quatrain, yet room for a sonnet!

How came it that such a space failed to get collared By "Madison Clinton" or "Frank Dompster Scollard?"

A rather small space to exhibit much art in, Then why not reserve it for "Edward S. Martin?"

Or, if it were thought they could put but a dab in, Then why not be courteous and let "John B. Tabb" in?

Now where was the agent of that babbling trio Ubiquitous "Elsa" and "Zona" and "Theo?"

Yes, somebody blundered—so careless, so reckless To let any one of those mentioned go checkless!

But, thank you, Sir Editor, for this brief space is In Magazine Verse Land a charming oasis.

Far fairer than latter-day lyric or sonnet Is this virgin half-page without a thing on it! —May Atlantic.

READY TO QUIT

Honduras Agrees to Stop War if Other Republics Will.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Honduras is willing to accept and submit its grievances to arbitration as soon as Guatemala and Salvador agree to do likewise. A dispatch announcing Honduras' willingness to arbitrate was received today by the state department from Philip S. Brown, the American charge, who is looking after the affairs of the United States in Honduras and Guatemala during the absence of Leslie Combs, the American minister to those countries, who was on his way to the United States when the war broke out and has not been able to get back to his post at Guatemala City.

Mr. Merry, the American minister to Salvador, advised the department today that he is still negotiating with the Salvadoran authorities, trying to get them to agree to disarm and meet Guatemalan envoys in Washington or elsewhere to arrange for a settlement of the difficulties.

NO MORE NEWS.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—State department officials received no messages today which throw any light on the war involving Guatemala, Salvador and Honduras. The representative of the United States in Guatemala and Salvador has assured his department that negotiations for the peaceful settlement of the difficulties between Guatemala and Salvador seem to be progressing satisfactorily, but they give no details as to exactly how the difficulties will be adjusted.

The suggestion of Guatemalan revolutionists that they are willing to accept any president for that country who may be agreed upon by President Diaz and President Roosevelt is not considered seriously by the state department. Revolutionists have no international standing and it would be impossible for the presidents of Mexico and the United States to recognize the insurgents in any way unless they should completely overthrow the government of Guatemala.

President Roosevelt's activity in the Central American dispute has been misunderstood in some quarters, according to state department officials. It would be highly improper, it is stated, for the president to offer his services as an arbitrator and he has not done so. He merely suggested to the warring republics that he would exert his good offices to assist them in settling their differences.

RAILWAY TAKES ENTIRE BLAME

SALISBURY, Eng., July 14.—At the resumption here today of the coroner's inquiry into the cause of the railroad wreck of the Plymouth steamer express July 1, which resulted in the loss of twenty-seven lives, counsel for the London and Southwestern Railroad announced that the railroad accepted full responsibility for the accident and all the legal consequences resulting from it, adding that it hoped this statement would reduce the time occupied by the inquest.

There is no improvement in the condition of Robert S. Critchell of Chicago, who was seriously injured in the wreck.

HASSE CASE IS SET FOR HEARING

The second trial of Otto Hasse on a charge of presenting false and fraudulent claims against the county of Alameda, has been set for hearing before Judge Melvin on August 3.

Hasse, who was formerly manager of the Central News store, which had the contract for furnishing the county with stationery, was arrested and accused of raising the bills against the county and putting in bills for stationery which had not been ordered or delivered. There are five indictments against Hasse on it, it is said, for at least $1000 from the county by his illegal acts.

JUNK MAN MADE RICH

Reuben Jacobs Inherits $700,000 After Twenty Years of Poverty.

After twenty years of grinding poverty, during which time he has occupied with his family a squalid home on Tenth street near Fourteenth avenue in East Oakland, Reuben Jacobs, a dealer in second hand goods and junk, has been made a rich man through the inheritance of a legacy of $700,000 left him by his uncle, Louis Gordon, a Wall street broker, who died two years ago. Gordon's estate amounted in value to $2,000,000, which has been equally divided in his will among his three nephews, Reuben, Samuel and Joseph Jacobs, all brothers.

Reuben Jacobs has five children, the youngest seven and the eldest seventeen. He and his wife and children have worked day and night to earn a living. Many a time has Jacobs found difficulty in raising the money to pay the rent where he has his store.

Instead of going out of business, the thrifty junk dealer announces that he will charge upon his business and put in a first class stock. He is to purchase the building which for so many years he has rented.

Three months ago Jacobs was requested to come to New York to have the estate settled, but lack of funds prevented his going. He informed the attorneys in the east of his pecuniary straits, and $250 was forwarded to him with which to make the trip. He starts for New York, in company with his daughter, Annie, on July 25.

WILL ADD MUCH TERRITORY TO BERKELEY

BERKELEY, July 15.—If the elections of the Claremont and Ocean View districts are carried, nearly two miles of territory will be added to Berkeley.

At the present time the area of Berkeley is nine square miles and if the sections named above are annexed the total area will be fourteen square miles.

A little less than a square mile is included in that portion of Claremont which is proposed to be taken in. The Ocean View district, which lies to the north of Berkeley, is about a mile wide and about four miles long. The annexation election for Claremont is to be held on August 15 and for Ocean View on August 18.

MANHATTAN GOLD FIELDS

RICH DISCOVERIES OF ORE AND VIRGIN GOLD BEING MADE DAILY

Each day adds to the wonderful story of the Manhattan gold fields. The sensational days of the Comstock are being repeated, but with more intensity.

Goldfield, Bullfrog, Tonopah—all have been left behind by the daily discoveries of rich ore and virgin gold in the marvelous Manhattan district.

It is impossible to make a poor investment anywhere near Manhattan, for it is believed by experts, and, indeed, has been fully proved that every inch of that territory is pregnant with gold.

Right in the heart of Manhattan's richest claims are located the most valuable property of them all, and it is owned by Oaklanders. At the present moment its rich deposits offer such a strong temptation that the three claims, Empire numbers 3, 4 and 5, to which reference is being made, are guarded night and day by armed men. Samples of ore taken from this mine have assayed as high as $5400 to the ton, while there are several ledges on the property assaying from $75 to $175 per ton.

A few days ago these lucky Oaklanders sent a disinterested individual to their claims with instructions to bring to Oakland samples of quartz, taken from the veins on the surface or in the shaft of the Empire claims.

Yesterday a most interesting demonstration was given in the offices of the Manhattan-Frisco Mining & Milling Company in the Bacon block. These samples from Manhattan were displayed and Irving Peterson, the discoverer of many of the best mines in Nevada and general manager of the company, took one of the samples and pounded and washed it before the visitors.

There was no doubt as to the genuineness of the test. The sample showed little outward sign of the precious metal which it contained, but when the pebble and pan had done its work, there was clear gold in such proportions as to average $600 to the ton. One piece of quartz weighing two pounds contains gold almost in its virgin state worth twenty dollars.

The Manhattan-Frisco Company has for its board of directors, M. C. Chapman, president; Hon. H. G. Williams, president of the Merchants' Exchange of Oakland, vice-president; Hon. H. A. Melvin, treasurer; Hon. John L. Davis, secretary, and Irving Peterson, general manager.

Probably the greatest proof of the confidence which Mr. Irving Peterson has in the future of the Manhattan-Frisco properties is the fact that he has decided over all his interests to the company, retaining his entire payment in stock. This is something almost unique in the history of mining, for owners of claims generally insist on a large amount of cash before they will relinquish their rights. Mr. Peterson explains his action by saying that he is confident that it is only a matter of a short time when the dividends on his stock will compensate him in a far greater measure than any amount of cash he could expect to receive from the stockholders of the company.

Nor is Mr. Peterson acting without due consideration. He has traveled all over the Bullfrog and Tonopah country, and is thoroughly informed about every inch of this new mining district. He is a prospector and mining man of many years' experience, and his opinions are accepted in the Nevada camps as possessing great weight and worth. Almost immediately after his discovery the agents of international investors offered him a large amount of money for an outright purchase of these claims, but the owner's experience impelled him to refuse any such offer, declaring that his interest was in the future.

SEALS BREAK ALAMEDA BOWLERS HONORED FOR
EVEN ON BRILLIANT WORK IN TOURNAMENT
DAY

Immense crowds saw the games at Mora Park yesterday. The Seals won the morning one, but lost in the afternoon. Parke Wilson tried out two bush pitchers and met with indifferent success. In the morning Tyson, an exceedingly tall, white-haired boy from Niles, was on the rubber. He allowed but three safeties, all singles, and won his game handsily. He was wild at times, walking nine men in the game, but held himself well in hand at critical stages. In this game Hogan robbed Bradbury of what looked like a sure single, Happy coming in fast from right garden, getting the ball back to first and putting it to the bag ahead of the little backstop. Mohler was also there, taking a beauty off the bleachers fence back of first.

BRUCE WHACKED HARD.

In the afternoon Bruce of the Black Diamonds was produced and he was soundly whalloped in the first two innings. Casey doubled and Tagan singled in the first, without visible result, but hits counted in the second. With one man down in the latter interval Delmas singled and scored on Cartwright's beauty for three corners. Cartwright came home on Hogan's infield out. Then Fitzgerald swung hard and netted two aces, finishing the circuit when Wheeler let Doyle's ground-er get away from him. Doyle, safe on the error, stole second and tallied twice in the ninth.

The Seals didn't score at all, although they had seven hits, two of which were triples, and three doubles. From the second to the eighth innings inclusive Wilson's men scored one hit each inning, but could not get a man across the pan.

KNELL IN AIR.

Knell completed a week of work that at the best has been mediocre by going completely into the air. On Bruce's first appearance at bat Phil called balls twice when the batsman swung with all his might and missed the sphere, and the crowd hooted in derision. On Bruce's second appearance Knell made the same mistake, but continued to be bright and out through. Knowles, however, nursing his decision on his leather umpire's word. In the morning Knell gave two vile decisions, calling Doyle safe at the plate in the first inning when Bradbury had hit three times, and calling Wheeler out on a third strike when he had hit three times. Later in the week Knell was criticized for his decision. He will be watched closely, and his work will be continuing if he can deliver the ball article of umpire.

Scene at recent banquet given to successful bowlers of Alameda by Wm. Zingg.

ALAMEDA, July 16.—As a fitting close to the bowling season, William Zingg of Park street recently tendered a banquet to the champions of Alameda, as well as to the champions of the Alameda county bowling tournament.

The affair was a great success and speeches were made which showed that stimulus will be added to the bowling game in this county.

Those who were present at the affair were: William Zingg, Al Schmidt, John Lewis, Judd Durkes, Clifford Richmond, Ray Badwell, L. Gotta, Crosby McConnell, B. G. Fenton, E. E. Miller, Nick Lohr, William Murray, G. Tupper and C. H. Lee.

During the evening the five members of Zingg's No. 1 team, which was second in the Alameda county tournament, were presented with watches. Mr. Miller is a member of the Buffalo bowling team and winner of first individual prize. Mr. Fenton is of the Pabst bowling team, which organization won the county tournament.

TIM FLOOD TO
COAST

Tim Flood, who eloped from Portland and went to the outlaw league, will be back here very soon. He found the going in the non-union baseball aggression not as smooth as he thought it would be, and he was forced to return. There he was located by Secretary Farrell and put into the pound. Farrell wired President Best that the escape had been captured and would be forwarded to Portland immediately.

Flood was swapped to the Webfooters by Morley last spring. He did not like the notion of going up into the land of eternal umbrellas and disappeared. He and Bud Smith had been traded for Atz and Schaeley.

SOMETHING
NEW UNDER THE SUN

Persons who maintain "there is nothing new under the sun" are not conversant with baseball. It is true the game is not as old as the solar light, heat and power plant, and that may account for the fact that something new crops up in baseball every little while.

An inquisitive fan has asked a question which the rule makers never heard of, at least, for they have not provided for it up to date. The play happened like this: With the bases full and two men out, the batsman hit a grounder to the shortstop, who started to throw to first base, but hit the umpire, who probably was behind the pitcher. The ball glanced off to the second baseman who threw it to the plate and the umpire called that runner out, thereby retiring the side.

The team at bat disputed the decision, maintained it was a "blocked ball," and that all base runners could keep moving until the ball was held by the pitcher in his position again. The play may have happened before, but not where it attracted attention, because the professional umpire would have been behind the plate with the bases full. However, a search of the rules discloses nothing but a tangle over the play.

DECISION INCORRECT.
The umpire's decision was not correct, neither was the contention that it was a "blocked ball." There is a rule which says when a throw by any fielder to intercept a base runner hits

OLD LEAGUERS
IN GAME
AGAIN.

The Old Leaguers, who disbanded at the time of the earthquake, have reorganized and issue a sweeping challenge to all fast amateur teams around the bay. The faster the better.

Yenking, the boy wonder, will deliver the benders, and Colby, who is now playing the best ball of his career, will endeavor to stop them.

With Whalen on first, Clark on second, Haskell on third, and Fitzgerald on short, the Old Leaguers have an infield that will be hard to beat, and which will be sure to put up fireworks.

The outer garden will be well taken care of with O'Connell right, Patterson center, and Tregue left field.

The Old Leaguers have an open date next Sunday and would like to arrange a game.

Address all challenges to F. O'Connell, 1379 1/2 Fifth avenue, East Oakland.

The umpire, the base runners must return to their bases. That makes a "dead ball" of it. But it is impossible for the base runners to return to their bases in this case, because four men can't be put on three bases, and there is no authority in the rules for sending a batsman back to the bat after making a hit on fair ground. Yet, the rules are explicit in saying the runners cannot advance in such a case.

The query was submitted to Umpires Carpenter and Klem of the National League and to Secretary McRoy of the American League, and all three agreed that in the lack of a definite rule to cover the play they would have allowed the runner from third to score, permitting each man to advance a base, just as if a batted ball had hit the umpire. This seems the just ruling, as a throw which hits an umpire supposedly would be too wild to retire the runner at first. The fact remains that the situation is not provided for in the present code and it gives the rule makers something to add to them.

OCCUPATIONS, PAST AND PRESENT, OF THE FIGHTERS

What they were before they blossomed out as fighters and what they are now is the subject of the following:

John L. Sullivan was a Boston cabman. He is lecturing on temperance. Jim Jeffries was a boiler maker. Now he's a farmer.

Jim Corbett was a bank clerk. He's an actor at present.

Bob Fitzsimmons was a blacksmith. He is running a farm now, doing monologue turns and fighting between times.

Tom Sharkey was a sailor. He has a saloon.

Kid McCoy was a clerk in a dry goods store. At present he is a capitalist.

Gus Ruhlin was a printer and an ironworker. Capitalist, too.

Philadelphia Jack O'Brien drove a team in the winter and worked in an Atlantic City bath house in summer. Also is a capitalist, still boxes, acts and draws a "champion" salary.

MAHER A COOPER.

Peter Maher was a cooper in a Dublin (Ireland) brewery. At present he drives a milk wagon.

Tommy West was a sailor, then a plasterer. He plasters still.

Joe Gans was employed in a fish market in Baltimore. Fighting, too.

Kid Sullivan worked in a billiard room in Washington.

Kid Lavigne was a cooper in Saginaw, Mich. He is giving boxing lessons and training dub fighters.

WALCOTT "BOBS UP SERENELY."

Joe Walcott worked in a billiard parlor. Has been resurrected to fight again.

Jack and Mike Twin Sullivan drove teams. They are both still fighting.

Jack Munroe was a miner and a professional football player. He is fighting now and then in small towns.

George Gardner was a shoemaker. Jimmy a bookbinder, Bill a shoemaker and Paddy held a government job.

George is following the races, with an occasional fight.

Jack Blackburn and Joe Grim were bootblacks. They are both scrapping along on meagre ring earnings.

Jack Root was a gang foreman. He is teaching boxing in Chicago.

Jack McAuliffe and Jack Dempsey were coopers in the same shop in Brooklyn. Dempsey is dead. McAuliffe follows the races.

DIXON'S FATE.

Ex-Champion George Dixon worked in a photographer's shop in Boston. He's living on what he can pick up.

Terry McGovern piled lumber. He is teaching occasionally and has a little

OAKS SHUT OUT THE ANGELS
INTEREST IN BOWLING
ACUTE

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—Superb pitching by Cates was responsible for an Angel defeat yesterday afternoon, when Oakland succeeded in shutting out Dillon's men by a score of 1 to 0. The Commuter slabman was master of the situation at every stage of the game, and although driven into several difficult corners held the Angel hitters safe at critical times.

Nagle pitched his first game for Los Angeles since the fire and although he allowed Oakland but six hits did not appear ready for such a pace as Cates set. Brilliant fielding was the order and one of the largest crowds of the season was kept in an uproar of excitement during nine stirring innings.

Oakland's run came in the first inning after Devereaux had gone out, short to first. Smith was given a base on balls and was forced at second by Van Halteren. Kruger was safe, as Dillon stepped off the bag to drop McClelland's throw. Heitmueller carried a Texas leaguer over first base and Van Halteren scored. The score:

PORTLAND, Or., July 16.—Portland made the series a shut-out against Seattle yesterday, taking the final game by a score of 4 to 1. The Beavers continued their hitting streak, and Jones, regarded as the steadiest pitcher on the Seattle team, allowed them twelve hits, while Henderson kept his opponents down to five. McLean took first honors, landing the ball against the fence twice for three bases and making one straight drive that passed him safely to the second sack. There were no errors.

Blankschhip in the fourth made the lone tally for the Elwhas. He went to first, having been struck by a pitched ball, stole second and went home on a hit by Householder.

High scores have been made frequently at the Oakland alleys in the last few days.

Though the winter tournaments are over, interest in bowling shows no abatement. At the Oakland alleys many bowlers, beginners included, are being entered for a doubles tournament soon to begin.

One of the visitors at these alleys recently was the G. Kewar of India, who, with his wife, bowled several games.

Recent scores at the alleys are as follows:

MALARIA AN INSIDIOUS FOE
TO HEALTH

Malaria is an atmospheric poison which we unconsciously breathe into our lungs through the impure air arising from low, marshy places, stagnant ponds, damp cellars, sewer pipes, improperly ventilated houses, decaying vegetable matter, etc. Day after day these germs and poisons are taken into the lungs, and as the blood passes through them it becomes infected with the poison and in its circulation distributes the microbes of disease to all parts of the body. Malaria is a very insidious disease; it gives no warning of its coming until the circulation is filled with the poison and this foe to health has the system at its mercy. The blood becomes polluted, thin and weak and its slow, irregular circulation fails to properly nourish and strengthen the body. Then the entire system is attacked, and if the germs and poisons of Malaria are allowed to remain the strongest constitution will break down. No one can feel well when the system is in a malarial condition; the vitality is weak, the appetite poor, digestion deranged, the complexion grows sallow and the entire body feels the effects of the poison. Malaria must be removed from the system through the circulation and the only medicine that can accomplish this is S. S. S. It not only cleanses the blood of all unhealthy, morbid matter, but destroys the germs, cures Malaria and restores this vital fluid to a strong, healthy condition. S. S. S. is made of roots, herbs and barks combining purifying and tonic properties which keep the blood free of all poisons and the system in perfect condition. While destroying the germs of Malaria and building up the weak, polluted blood S. S. S. gives tone and vigor to the entire system. Book on the blood and any medical advice without charge.
